Weather by OSMER - ARPA FVG:
Cloudy in the morning; widespread rainfalls and showers from midday; snowfalls above approx.

Snow cover conditions and avalanche danger: On Tuesday: perturbations with possible widespread rainfalls, snowfalls above approx. 1800-2000 m. The expected snowfalls will not change the current avalanche danger, which will remain low everywhere. Danger will slightly increase, only where snowfalls are heavier. There, small releases of loose snow may occur from the steepest slopes and along couloirs. Forecast danger level: 1 (low) on the Carniche and Giulie Alps and western Carniche Prealps. No danger on the eastern Carniche Prealps and the Giulie Prealps.
